

LEARNING FROM CRITTERS

- Ice breaker – Nail puzzle
- Why the puzzle?

-  Explain

- Leaders and Eagles – Hostage situation

Gung Ho

(K. Blanchard and S. Bowles)

WHAT DOES GUNG HO REALLY MEAN?

➤ SPIRIT OF THE SQUIRREL

Worthwhile work

➤ WAY OF THE BEAVER

In control of achieving goals for the common good

Gift of the Geese

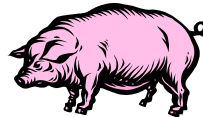

Cheering each other along

“People who are truly in control, work for organisations that value them as persons. Their thoughts, feelings, needs and dreams are respected, listened to and acted upon.”

Andy Long-claw

- Barnyard breakfasts?

- Who moved my cheese?

Summary -

“Never underestimate the enemy. Respect him, but equally always remember, regardless of the odds, team to team, yours is better. If there is any doubt in your mind in regard to this previous sentence you had better start training harder, or hand over your command”

Australian Army Leadership Manual, 1994