Access begins from the beaching trailhead at the Wilpena Visitor Centre carpark. Rangers recommend you leave on this circuit later than 10 am or 10.30 am and during Daylight Saving hours.

Malloga Falls Hike

A long, easy hike on the Floor of Wilpena Pound to see the spectacular rock faces of Edesdale Gorge and the stunning Malloga Falls. Beyond Coosinda Camp, hikers are treated to long stretches of smooth, flat, gravel surfaced trails. Hikes require some experience and a reasonable fitness level, as some sections can be quite hilly.

Prior to commencing this hike, hikers should study the map provided at the Wilpena Visitor Centre. A shuttle bus was available at this time.

Access begins from the beaching trailhead at the Wilpena Visitor Centre carpark. Rangers recommend you leave on this circuit later than 10 am or 10.30 am and during Daylight Saving hours.

The Heysen Trail

The Heysen Trail is a long-distance walking trail which traverses the Adnyamathanha Country from the Flinders Ranges to the Barossa Valley in South Australia. The trail, which runs for 300 kilometres, is a significant part of the Adnyamathanha Culture. In 1998, the Heysen Trail was awarded the Enid Lyons Award in recognition of its contribution to the conservation of our natural heritage and the promotion of good practice in the management of national parks. The Heysen Trail is one of the most comfortable for walking. The trail is relatively easy to walk and is well maintained with good signage. The trail is open all year round and is suitable for hikers of all ages and abilities. The Heysen Trail provides access to some of the most spectacular areas in the Flinders Ranges National Park.

Many of the walking trails within the park utilised parts of the trail. The Heysen Trail can be used in sections or as a whole. Access: begins from the Coosinda Camp Carpark.

Access begins from the beaching trailhead at the Wilpena Visitor Centre carpark. Rangers recommend you leave on this circuit later than 10 am or 10.30 am and during Daylight Saving hours.

Cycling in the park

The park is a popular destination for cycling. The Heysen Trail provides access to some of the most stunning areas in the park. The trail is ideal for those who enjoy long-distance cycling as it is open all year round and is suitable for cyclists of all ages and abilities.

By bike: Coosinda Camp to the Aroona to Youngoona Hike trailhead (Flat)

Access begins from the beaching trailhead at the Wilpena Visitor Centre carpark. Rangers recommend you leave on this circuit later than 10 am or 10.30 am and during Daylight Saving hours.

The national parks code

Help protect your national parks by following these guidelines:

1. Leave your pet at home.
2. Be considerate of other park users.
3. Take your rubbish with you.
4. Observe fire restrictions, usually 1 November to 30 April. Check OTS hotline 1300 562 367.
5. Camp only in designated areas.
6. Keep our wild trails and other areas free of litter.
7. Keep clear of wildlife. Do not feed or disturb
8. Be considerate of other park users.

Further information

National Parks SA
PMB 22 Wilpena via Hawker SA 5434
Wilpena Visitor Centre
Tel: (08) 8204 1910
Parks SA
National Parks SA
parks.sa.gov.au
Book online before you go

Location Map

Bunyeroo - Wilcolo Creeks Hike

Access begins from the beaching trailhead at the Wilpena Visitor Centre carpark. Rangers recommend you leave on this circuit later than 10 am or 10.30 am and during Daylight Saving hours.

The Heysen Trail

The Heysen Trail is a long-distance walking trail which traverses the Adnyamathanha Country from the Flinders Ranges to the Barossa Valley in South Australia. The trail, which runs for 300 kilometres, is a significant part of the Adnyamathanha Culture. In 1998, the Heysen Trail was awarded the Enid Lyons Award in recognition of its contribution to the conservation of our natural heritage and the promotion of good practice in the management of national parks. The Heysen Trail is one of the most comfortable for walking. The trail is relatively easy to walk and is well maintained with good signage. The trail is open all year round and is suitable for hikers of all ages and abilities. The Heysen Trail provides access to some of the most spectacular areas in the Flinders Ranges National Park.

Many of the walking trails within the park utilised parts of the trail. The Heysen Trail can be used in sections or as a whole. Access: begins from the Coosinda Camp Carpark.

Access begins from the beaching trailhead at the Wilpena Visitor Centre carpark. Rangers recommend you leave on this circuit later than 10 am or 10.30 am and during Daylight Saving hours.

Cycling in the park

The park is a popular destination for cycling. The Heysen Trail provides access to some of the most stunning areas in the park. The trail is ideal for those who enjoy long-distance cycling as it is open all year round and is suitable for cyclists of all ages and abilities.

By bike: Coosinda Camp to the Aroona to Youngoona Hike trailhead (Flat)

Access begins from the beaching trailhead at the Wilpena Visitor Centre carpark. Rangers recommend you leave on this circuit later than 10 am or 10.30 am and during Daylight Saving hours.

The national parks code

Help protect your national parks by following these guidelines:

1. Leave your pet at home.
2. Be considerate of other park users.
3. Take your rubbish with you.
4. Observe fire restrictions, usually 1 November to 30 April. Check OTS hotline 1300 562 367.
5. Camp only in designated areas.
6. Keep our wild trails and other areas free of litter.
7. Keep clear of wildlife. Do not feed or disturb
8. Be considerate of other park users.

Further information

National Parks SA
PMB 22 Wilpena via Hawker SA 5434
Wilpena Visitor Centre
Tel: (08) 8204 1910
Parks SA
National Parks SA
parks.sa.gov.au
Book online before you go

Location Map

Bunyeroo - Wilcolo Creeks Hike

Access begins from the beaching trailhead at the Wilpena Visitor Centre carpark. Rangers recommend you leave on this circuit later than 10 am or 10.30 am and during Daylight Saving hours.

The Heysen Trail

The Heysen Trail is a long-distance walking trail which traverses the Adnyamathanha Country from the Flinders Ranges to the Barossa Valley in South Australia. The trail, which runs for 300 kilometres, is a significant part of the Adnyamathanha Culture. In 1998, the Heysen Trail was awarded the Enid Lyons Award in recognition of its contribution to the conservation of our natural heritage and the promotion of good practice in the management of national parks. The Heysen Trail is one of the most comfortable for walking. The trail is relatively easy to walk and is well maintained with good signage. The trail is open all year round and is suitable for hikers of all ages and abilities. The Heysen Trail provides access to some of the most spectacular areas in the Flinders Ranges National Park.

Many of the walking trails within the park utilised parts of the trail. The Heysen Trail can be used in sections or as a whole. Access: begins from the Coosinda Camp Carpark.

Access begins from the beaching trailhead at the Wilpena Visitor Centre carpark. Rangers recommend you leave on this circuit later than 10 am or 10.30 am and during Daylight Saving hours.

Cycling in the park

The park is a popular destination for cycling. The Heysen Trail provides access to some of the most stunning areas in the park. The trail is ideal for those who enjoy long-distance cycling as it is open all year round and is suitable for cyclists of all ages and abilities.

By bike: Coosinda Camp to the Aroona to Youngoona Hike trailhead (Flat)

Access begins from the beaching trailhead at the Wilpena Visitor Centre carpark. Rangers recommend you leave on this circuit later than 10 am or 10.30 am and during Daylight Saving hours.

The national parks code

Help protect your national parks by following these guidelines:

1. Leave your pet at home.
2. Be considerate of other park users.
3. Take your rubbish with you.
4. Observe fire restrictions, usually 1 November to 30 April. Check OTS hotline 1300 562 367.
5. Camp only in designated areas.
6. Keep our wild trails and other areas free of litter.
7. Keep clear of wildlife. Do not feed or disturb
8. Be considerate of other park users.

Further information

National Parks SA
PMB 22 Wilpena via Hawker SA 5434
Wilpena Visitor Centre
Tel: (08) 8204 1910
Parks SA
National Parks SA
parks.sa.gov.au
Book online before you go

Location Map

Bunyeroo - Wilcolo Creeks Hike

Access begins from the beaching trailhead at the Wilpena Visitor Centre carpark. Rangers recommend you leave on this circuit later than 10 am or 10.30 am and during Daylight Saving hours.